

World war II was planned and actually started US

U.S. responsibility for the outbreak of the Second World war A fragment from the book by Yuriy Yemelyanov USA Evil Empire Despite considerable advances in the recovery of the US economy failed to prevent a new economic crisis began in the autumn of 1937. By the summer of 1938, industrial production declined by one-third and the number of unemployed reached 96 million people. Farmers' incomes fell, the number of applications for grants has increased dramatically. The Roosevelt administration increased spending on public works and social assistance. The President spoke about the inequality of the American society for putting that 15% of the population receive the same income as 47% of the population but was unable to propose any measures to change this situation. American historian R. Tugwell wrote In 1939 the government could not achieve any progress. It was impossible even to propose new bills Ahead of us lay the open sea until the day when Poland was invaded by Hitler. Fog could dispel only the mighty wind of war. Other measures in the government of Roosevelt would not bring any results To be precise it should be considered that the Second World War is Poland and Germany is not a Convincing proof of this assertion is given in the article How Poland attacked Germany in ' 39. Ed.. In order not to be mistaken with the policy development required detailed information on the situation in foreign countries and the opportunity to influence their course. Since the days of Benjamin Franklin, the United States had a good system of reporting on the state of Affairs abroad as well as a lot of their overt and covert agents are able to carry out actions in the interests of the United States. American historians B. Langer and S. Gleason wrote Hardly any government in modern times had more intelligence information about the situation abroad than the U.S. government in this critical period. Roosevelt and Hull, the then U.S. Secretary of state promptly and fully informed. It would hardly be an exaggeration to assume that they were in a better position compared with the statesmen of other countries knowing all aspects of the situation and if they deemed it necessary they could have a huge impact. Knowing the international environment and having their agents of influence in various countries, the US government sought to handle the case so that a new world war has brought them no less of financial profit and political benefits and may be large. At first the rulers of the United States studiously pretend not to notice that the world has a force ready to implement a new repartition of the planet but to subject the Nations of the Earth total enslavement or genocide based on racial luteri.
